

<<<<< 2023 & 2024 TRAININGS >>>>>

First Line Supervision

This 80-hour course is designed for newly promoted police supervisors. Learning topics include; conflict resolution, leadership, crime analysis, monitoring and documenting employee performance, collective bargaining, situational leadership, legal issues, and ethical leadership.

- September 18 - October 6, 2023
- September 16 - October 4, 2024

School of Staff and Command

This 400-hour course is designed specifically for Law Enforcement Supervisors and Managers. The course is problem-based and utilizes a blend of classroom facilitated learning and cutting edge distance learning technologies.

- January 29 – June 14, 2024

Online Masters Programs:

We also offer two different 30-credit hour Masters degree programs completely online. MS degrees are available in the following areas:

- Criminal Justice
- Law Enforcement Intelligence and Analysis

For additional information please contact: traincj@msu.edu or (517) 355-2197 or visit: www.cj.msu.edu/centers

Michigan State University
School of Criminal Justice
655 Auditorium Road, Room 560
East Lansing, MI
48824-1118
517-355-2197